

L to R: Doug Erskine, Joe Anderson, Bill Bascomb, Clint Scharfe
 Stuart Pobke, Janet Whittaker, Chris Baird, Cindy Carr, Jason Verhees

PORT LINCOLN GOLF CLUB RESULTS TO 1st APR 2017

Saturday April 1

Today was the Opening Day of the Winter Season and 93 golfers played in teams of four in Mixed and Men's Ambrose competitions. The daily sponsor was the Grand Tasman Hotel and the pre-game nibbles were supplied by The Greenside Bistro.

In the Men's section, the winning team had a course record for an Ambrose event, with 55 off the stick – a stunning 17 strokes under par. This included 13 birdies, two eagles and three basic pars, at least one of them gettable as a birdie according to the team, which consisted of Clint Scharfe, Doug Erskine, Joe Anderson and Bill Bascomb. The nett winners with 54.25 were Brad Bobridge, Warren Rosman, Dave Wallace and Brock Wise.

The Mixed event gross winners were the team of Jason Verhees, Cindy Carr, Stuey Pobke, Janet Whittaker and Chris Baird, with 62 off the stick and ten strokes under par. Runners up with nett 60.375 were Ross and Val Sharrad and Roger and Poy Forrest.

NTP winners were Lindsay Gordon, Geoff DeLongville, Dave Wallace and Clint Scharfe. Long Drive winners were Paul McEvoy in A Grade, Jarrod Jones for the Bees and Ray Glendenning in C Grade. Ladies' winner was Helen George.

Thursday March 30

The Winter Opening Day for the Ladies attracted 19 players, with the daily winner being Cindy Carr with 36 Stableford points from Janet Whittaker 33. Helen George won the nine-hole event with 16 points.

A pooled lunch was enjoyed after golf and presentations for the Summer Season were announced. The Pedemonte Trophy was Maxine Garnaut and the Eclectic winners were Cindy Carr on Thursdays and Lyn Hosking on Saturdays. Most points winners over Summer were Val Sharrad on Thursdays and Elaine Thring on Saturdays. Best individual score winner for the season was Cindy Carr on a count-back from Sue Cotton.

Wednesday March 29

A smaller field of 54 men braved the showers and windy conditions for their mid-week competition, sponsored by Lincoln Newsagency. There was one visitor from Coffin Bay GC.

Simon Bell shot three under par from his 1 handicap to record 40 points and win A Grade, from Rex Bichard with 35.

B Grade winner was Kris Bunder with 39 points from Ben Sellen with 38 and Andrew Puglisi must have mixed practice with practicality to win C Grade with 42 points from Ralph Glass with 38.

Run-down balls went to Ian Sellen, Andy Smith, Bill Ford and Rick Kolega, all with 35 points.

NTP winners were visitor Tim Branford, Gavin Cheriton (twice), Greg Cotton, Roger Forrest and Andy Smith and birdies were swooped on by Simon Bell, Andy Smith, Juri Berzins, Gavin Cheriton, Mike Munro and Taylor Ford.

Tuesday March 28

Eleven players hit off in the last Twilight event for the daylight savings season. Josh Hausler won with 23 points from Dave Batterbury with 21.

Sunday March 26

Dean Weatherspoon won the Men's section of the Sunday Stableford event with 40 points on a count-back from Mike Freeman.

Masters Event at Clare

A group of local players went to the recent Masters' Games at Clare. Janet Whittaker came home with seven gold and silver medals, Sue Cotton picked up gold and silver medals, and Bill Healey has an undisclosed bag of medals from the Games, as well as Greg Cotton. A separate report will be provided.

Club Junior Championships

This was played last Sunday and a full report will be provided separately by Shaun Thomas and Norm Marks, the Club's Junior Golf Co-ordinators. Congratulations to Adam Davies, the overall winner.