

PORT LINCOLN GOLF CLUB INC RESULTS TO SAT 6th MAY 2017

VETERAN GOLFER GEOFF WILL TURNS 90 TODAY!

Saturday May 6

64 men played in a Stroke round, incorporating the second qualifying round for the Fulwood Cup and sponsored by Port Lincoln Real Estate.

A Grade winner was Brian Henson with nett 66 from Rex Martin 71. Dean Weatherspoon won B Grade with 68 from Glen Dunning 71 and Dave Gardiner won C Grade with 68 from Ray Glendenning 69.

Rundown awards went to Mark Butt and Paul Polkinghorne 72 and Bradley Bobridge, Anthony Manuel and Geoff DeLongville, all with 73 nett.

12 ladies played a separate Stableford competition and the winner was Adie Fraser with 35 points, counting out Heather Darley.

Thursday May 4

A field of 21 Ladies entered for the first round of their club Championships today, sponsored by the Pier Hotel and Regal Chickens.

The scores were surprisingly high, with fine, mild and calm conditions – no player broke 90 strokes.

The winner was Janet Whittaker with nett 73 (also breaking her handicap), from Elaine Thring and Helen George, both with 79. Heather Darley won the nine-hole event on a five-way count-back, and Elaine Pierik was Nearest the Pin for the month of April and birdies came from Cindy Carr (chipping out on the first hole), Ellie Hyde on the 3rd hole and Gail Watherston on the 12th hole.

Points for the day were awarded to Janet Whittaker 3, Elaine Thring, Helen George, Adie Fraser and Jenny McDonald 2 and Val Sharrad 1.

Wednesday May 3

48 men played in their mid-week Stableford competition, sponsored by McDonalds Family Restaurant; there was one visitor from Blackwood GC.

Bill Bascomb won A Grade with 41 points on a count-back from Dan Townsend, who was happy with his best score ever, of two under par.

Dean Weatherspoon made a resurgence from his weekend score-line to post 40 points from Kris Bunder with 38, and Kevin Reidy recorded 37 points to win from Ray Glendenning on 34.

Run-down awards went to Huey Rosalia 40, Dave Wallace 38, Kane Williams 37 and Taylor Ford 36.

NTP winners were Andrew Stevens, Simon Bell (twice), Dan Townsend (twice) and Warren Rosman, who holed out in one on the twelfth hole – in his humble acceptance speech, he thinks it's only a matter of time before he turns a trifecta into a quadrella, with one par-three hole left to conquer. This eagle was amongst the birdies recorded by Warren again on the 1st hole, Roger Forrest on the 6th and Mike McCauley on the last hole.

Monday May 1

The Monthly Seniors' Day attracted twelve players. The Men's division was won by Colin Clark with 33 points on a count-back from Brian Smith; Dean Weatherspoon was third with 32.

The women's winner was Janet Whittaker with 33 points from Liz Weatherspoon a stroke further back.

Sunday April 30

15 men hit off in the Sunday Stableford event, with a three-way count-back to decide the winners. All with 39 points, the order of merit was Alan Jones from Dave Wallace and Dave Bellchambers; Jordy Chilman was counted out with the same score.

The ladies had four players in the division, with Liz Weatherspoon winning with 32 points from Lyn Hosking on 31.

Coming Events

The Club's Men's Open Championships will be held on Sunday May 21, sponsored by Mitre 10, West Coast Auto Electrics and Aidan Sheehy Building. Players are urged to nominate early, with a round of golf and two meals for $25, provided by the Greenside Bistro.

Not actually a coming golf event, but veteran golfer Geoff Will turns 90 years young today, but his brand new golf kart is the youngest and newest at the Club! He still plays off a handicap in the mid-twenties and his silky swing allows him to use a Driver off the fairway, to make up for the distance he may have lost over the years....but he still rues missed putts he would have sunk decades ago!
