

PORT LINCOLN GOLF CLUB INC RESULTS TO SAT 19th AUG 2017

Saturday August 19

Another good field of 89 players had a Stroke competition, sponsored by Spot On Fishing & Camping; it was also the first qualifying round for the Doug Watson Trophy.

The A Grade winner was Chas Chambers with 71 nett on a countback from Mick Hegarty.

Wayne Smith returned to golf after a trip away to register the best score of the day, winning B Grade with 68 from Steve Symons on 73.

C Grade winner was Kevin Reidy with 70, on a count-back from Alan Jones.

Ball Sweep winners were Dan Townsend, Tim Pobke and Simon Bell 71, from Mark Butt, Ben Abley, Kevin Blewitt, Greg Cotton and Bill Healey, all with 73 nett.

The Ladies' winner was Heather Darley, convincingly over the next best, Kaye Jaensch on 73.

NTP winners were John Cheriton, Brian Slape, Greg Hughes, Brenton (Boy) George, Tom Dawson and Heather Darley on the 18th; she also birdied this hole and Simon Bell, Greg Cotton, Kane Williams, Ben Sellen and Tom Dawson also scored birdies on the par three holes.

Thursday August 17

Regular showers kept the Ladies' week-day event down to twelve players, with the day sponsored by Initial Reaction.

Rhondda Mayfield won the Stroke event with nett 77 from Jinny Hussey 37 and Elaine Pierik won the nine-hole event. Helen George won the NTP competition on the last hole.

Wednesday August 16

57 men braved late rain squalls to play in the Mid-Week competition, this week sponsored by the Port Lincoln Hotel.

Dylan Bell has been playing good golf from his 4 handicap since his return home. He won A Grade with 37 points from Haydn (Skinny) Myers on 35. Bob Ford settled for his usual 36 points, which was good enough to win B Grade on a count-back from Steve Thomson.

The scoring fell away in C Grade, with Corey Bear winning with 32 points from Gavin Roberts on 30.

Run-down vouchers for the next best players across a grades were awarded to Wayne Macksad 36, Lindsay Gordon and Brian Henson 35, Garry Downey 33 and Jeff Tiller 32.

NTP winners were Andy Smith, Dan Townsend (twice), Tyson Dodd, Tony Dragun and Lindsay (Flash) Gordon birdied the 12th hole.

Sunday August 13

With only a small field, Huey Rosalia won the Sunday Stableford with 39 points from Josh Hausler 38
