

PORT LINCOLN GOLF CLUB RESULTS TO SAT 20th MAY 2017

Saturday May 20

55 men and 15 ladies hit off in fine conditions for a Par event, sponsored by Initial Reaction, with a visitor from Broken Hill South GC.

The quarter-finals of the Fulwood Cup were also played. In this Handicap Match Play Championship, Ross Sharrad fell over the line from Shaun Thomas on the 19th hole, as did Paul Polkinghorne over Glen Dunning, with the same result. Rex Martin defeated Jason Verhees 4/2 and John Strycharski won from Brenton Lees, with no score provided.

In the daily Par competition, Simon Bell won A Grade all square on a count-back from Greg Cotton.

Tim Blewitt had the score of the day with 3 up to win B Grade from Dean Weatherspoon 1 up and Todd George finished all square in C Grade to win over Dion Potts, who was square with the card.

In the Ladies' event, Cindy Carr was one up to win over Lyn Hosking on a count-back from Adie Fraser, both all square.

Run-down awards went to Grant Woods, square, from Matthew Molloy, Andy Smith, Kym Clarkw, Andrew Tiller and Kane Williams, all square.

NTP winners were Dean Weatherspoon, Wayne Macksad, Norm Marks, Grant Woods, Geoff DeLongville and Rex Bichard and Andrew Tiller, Rex Bichard, Greg Hughes and Dan Townsend all birdied the difficult par three last hole and Steven Carmody birdied the 6th hole.

Thursday May 18

A fine day saw 23 Ladies play the final round of their Club Championships. The day also incorporated the second round of the Monthly Medal, Veterans' Trophy and the International Bowl, and was sponsored by the Pier Hotel and Regal Chickens. A bistro Lunch and Presentations followed play.

Final results of the three rounds for the Championships saw Helen George repeat last year, winning the A Grade Championship with 270 strokes from Cynthia Thompson with 282. B Grade Champion is Adie Fraser, who had 309 to win from Ellie Hyde on 325 and Elaine Thring 343 from Sue Bishop 364.

In the handicap section for the day, the winner was Val Sharrad with 89/71 from Jo Higgins 95/72 and Cynthia Thompson 89/74.

Monthly Medal winners were Val Sharrad in A Grade, Adie Fraser in B Grade and Elaine Thring in C Grade on a count-back from Sue Bishop.

Wednesday May 17

The Mid-week Men's Stableford Competition attracted 54 players in fine conditions, with one visitor from Whyalla. The day was sponsored by Slape Crash Repairs.

Rex Martin continued his current good form in winning A Grade with the score of the day, 40 points, from Roger Forrest with 36. John (Nippo) Nippress won B Grade with 38 points on a count-back from Glen Dunning, and Boris Kovacic was the C Grade winner with 37 points from Ross Sharrad on 36.

Rundown awards went to Bill Healey 38, Taylor Ford 37 and Brian Smith and Jeff Tiller with 35.

NTP winners were Dan Townsend, John Strycharski, Peter Kenny, Rex Bichard and Greg Bawden and there were only two birdies on the par three holes – John Strycharski on the 6th hole and Dean Weatherspoon on the 18th.

Sunday May 14

14 players hit off in the Sunday Stableford Competition. The Men's winner was Lindsay (Flash) Gordon with 39 points from Luke Murray 32 on a count-back from Dean Weatherspoon.

Coming Events

Several local ladies will venture to Streaky Bay this coming Wednesday for their Ladies' Foursomes Championships, and a 130th Birthday Party Lunch will be on the following day, to celebrate significant days by Adie Fraser (70th) and Carolyn Cocks (60).

The semi-finalists in the Fulwood Cup will commence play from 10.30 am next Saturday morning; Ross Sharrad will play Paul Polkinghorne and Rex Martin meets John Strycharski.